

Château d'Hauteville

Facts and Features

Location

Blonay - St-Légier

Built

1760

Purchased

2019

Dedicated

2023

Residents

80 undergraduate students and 45 graduate students per semester on average

Living Space

58,547 sq. ft.

Property

90 acres

Features

Main building: classrooms, lounges, student kitchen, grand salon, library, and cellar

Exterior structures: grand cobblestone courtyard, two-story orangerie, barn, pavilion, greenhouse, gardener's house, and gatehouse

Grounds: French-style gardens, vineyards, orchards, forests, tree-lined pathways, stream, and vegetable garden

Renovations

All new utilities, student residence rooms, commercial kitchen and dining room, renovated roofs and windows, new information technology infrastructure, restored facades, and more

Academic Courses

French language, world civilizations, earth science, Christianity and culture, farming, plants and the environment, sociology, foreign policy, and alternative dispute resolution

Global Engagement

World-class venue for retreats, conferences, and lectures on topics of global significance

Fun Facts

The estate is designated by Switzerland as a Class 1 Historic Site.

The campus is heated by a sustainable wood chip system.

The campus will become 100% organic working farmland.

A train stop across the street from campus provides public transportation and eliminates students' need for private vehicles.